Mayor-elect John Carney Releases Transition Report

WILMINGTON, DE - Today, Mayor-elect John Carney released his comprehensive Mayoral Transition Report, outlining key priorities and actionable steps for his incoming administration. The report provides a detailed framework for ensuring that Wilmington's government operates smoothly as he prepares to take office as the 101st Mayor of the city on January 7, 2025.

"As I prepare to step into the role of Mayor of Wilmington, it is critical that we maintain continuity in leadership, uphold our commitment to transparency, and build a clear path forward for the city," said Mayor-elect Carney. "This report reflects the collaboration between my transition team and outgoing administration officials, stakeholders, and community members. It is a blueprint for addressing our most pressing challenges while ensuring Wilmington continues to thrive.

"This report lays the foundation for a new era in Wilmington—one rooted in collaboration, responsibility, and a shared vision for the future. We are ready to tackle the challenges ahead and capitalize on the tremendous potential our city holds. My administration will be guided by the needs and aspirations of our residents, and I am excited to begin this work together."

Mayor-elect Carney also acknowledged the leadership of outgoing Mayor Mike Purzycki and the hard work of city employees during his time in office. He expressed gratitude for the collaborative efforts in ensuring a smooth and effective transition.
